

The "2nd Pulmonary Vascular Diseases Summit" Held at TUOMS

The second summit on "Pulmonary Vascular Diseases" was held by Tabriz University of Medical Sciences (TUOMS) in association with Tuberculosis & Lung Research Center of TUOMS at Tabriz El Goli Pars Hotel on 13-14 July, 2017.

Dr. Farid Rashidi, Executive Secretary of the conference, cited the following titles as the main topics:

Primary pulmonary hypertension

A review of recent guidelines on embolism and pulmonary hypertension of European Society of Cardiology

Invasive treatment on acute pulmonary embolism

A review of chronic pulmonary embolism and Thromboendarterectomy and discussing the experiences of domestic centers

A review of the problems of pulmonary vascular disease due to congenital heart diseases

Secondary pulmonary hypertension associated with liver, kidney, and lung diseases and the effects on transplant prognosis

Secondary pulmonary hypertension associated with left heart disease

Catheterism workshop and echocardiographic assessment of the right heart was also held alongside the conference.

Check the congress website for more info:

<http://www.phsummit.ir/default>